

PAID INTERNSHIP

National Park Service: Blue Ridge Parkway

NPS Photo

Wildlife Monitoring: July 9 – October 26, 2018 (position is funded for a total of 480 hours to be worked during this period)

The selected applicant will work with the Blue Ridge Parkway wildlife biologist to assess resident bat species using acoustic monitoring tools and assist with the management and reporting of data collected during the project. Applicants must possess a valid driver license, a clean driving record, and be able to pass a criminal-background check.

The position will be full time (40 hrs. per week) The selected applicant must be available for the entire period. Housing is not provided. The position will pay $10.00-11.54 per hour (depending on the selected applicant's level of education). Applicants must be either current AppState undergraduate or graduate students or have graduated from AppState since (or during) May 2017. Applicants must be 35 years of age or younger at the start of the position in order to comply with the position's authorization under National Park Service Youth Programs Division. No paper applications will be accepted.

Apply online by visiting: <https://appstate.peopleadmin.com/postings/search> select the position announcement (under "Temporary" positions) and complete the online application instructions. Only complete applications will be reviewed.

Application deadline: May 7, 2018

Questions: Dr. Mark Spond, University Liaison to the National Park Service, spondmd@appstate.edu (please include: "Blue Ridge Parkway bat internship" in the subject line)